Noticed your adv. in Hobbies. I am in possession of a copy (Presume it is a copy) probably be called a Chromo on linen background. It is a picture by "Scanlan" of a Civil War prisoner in a Confederate prison Cell - Soldier in blue uniform with open Vest type jacket - He chiseled the bust of Lincoln on the stone wall of his Cell - shows him with short chisel in one hand and rock (mallet) in other - This came out of home of an old Civil War Veteran; frame is gold about 18" x 20" or so - Would this be of interest and they value it at $50.00 -
Have you anything of it's kind -

Yours truly,
H. Tarbroker

Dear Mr. Borbroker:

Thank you for calling to our attention the Civil War picture by Scanlan but it happens we have one identical with yours, gold frame and all so we would not care to acquire a second copy.

Very truly yours,

Director
